To Who It May Concern

I recently saw that you were hiring for the position of a waitress at Bar508. I am very interested in working for your new establishment, and hope to meet you in person for an interview.

When I was 20 I worked in a applebees in sweet home. I was always prompt in my service and my customers are always happy. I am a friendly person who is also a hard worker.

I always had the specials memorized for each day and I was able to upsell drinks more than average almost every shift. My boss appreciated my ability to "go with the flow" and the fact I didnt complain when plans changed.

I am excited to work in your new restaraunt, especially after seeing the menu. I have never seen another restaurant doing an fusion of Japaneses and italian food. It sounds both contemporary and classic. I look forward to seeing your company grow and develop a dedicated fan base in Albany. Please contact me at 541-987-2331 to set up a interview in person where I can display my skills. Thank you for your time.
