Definitions and Notes

Disability: The term “disability” means, with respect to an individual, a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more of the person’s major life activities.

An Eligible Veteran meets one of the following conditions:

- 1) Is a person who served on active duty in the armed forces for a period of less than or equal to 180 days, and who was discharged or released from such service under conditions other than dishonorable.
- 2) Is a person who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days and was discharged or released with other than a dishonorable discharge; or was discharged or released because of a service connected disability; or as a member of a reserve component under an order to active duty pursuant to section 12301 (a), (d), or, (g), 12302, or 12304 of Title 10, U.S.C., served on active duty during a period of war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge is authorized and was discharged or released from such duty with other than a dishonorable discharge; or
- 3) Is a person who is (a) the spouse of any person who died on active duty or of a service-connected disability, (b) the spouse of any member of the Armed Forces serving on active duty who at the time of application for assistance under this part, is listed, pursuant to 38 U.S.C. 101 and the regulations issued thereunder, by the Secretary concerned, in one or more of the following categories and has been so listed for more than 90 days: (i) missing in action; (ii) captured in the line of duty by a hostile force; or (iii) forcibly detained or interned in the line of duty by a foreign government or power; or (c) the spouse of any person who has a total disability permanent in nature resulting from a service-connected disability or the spouse of a veteran who died while a disability so evaluated was in existence.

Your information is confidential. Federal laws and Connecticut State Colleges and Universities Board of Regents for Higher Education policies protect the privacy of individual social security numbers (SSN) by limiting the conditions under which they are collected, used and disclosed.

We protect your information. The Connecticut State Colleges and Universities Board of Regents for Higher Education maintain practices to ensure the security and confidentiality of your personal information, including SSN. Access to your SSN is strictly limited to those staff who have a legitimate need to use the information in the normal course of performing their duties.

Your response to these questions is voluntary, but important to help us comply with the law. Your responses will not affect your participation in the program.

Your Social Security Number. In accordance with the privacy act of 1974, you are hereby notified that the Department of Labor is authorized to collect information to implement TAACCCT. The principle purpose for collecting this information is to administer the program, including tracking and evaluating participant progress. Providing this information, including a social security number (SSN) is voluntary; failure to disclose the SSN will not result in the denial of any right, benefit or privilege to which the participants is entitled. The information that is collected on this form will be retained in the program files of the grantee and may be released to other Department official in the performance of their official duties.

We use this information to comply with U.S. Department of Labor (USDOL). Connecticut Community College Consortium was awarded a grant under the Trade Adjustment Assistance Community College and Career Training Grants Program, as implemented by the U.S. Department of Labor’s Employment and Training Administration, to create, standardize and expand training opportunities to help students pursue careers and further their education in manufacturing, energy and transportation. The USDOL requires that we collect personal identification, demographic and employment information on CAMI program participants to comply with federal policies and assess program outcomes. The program outcome information in aggregate may be shared with Congress and other state and federal agencies.

We collect information to serve you and use the information we collect as permitted by law.
