NEW FEATURES

With over 700 institutions contributing to the repository, SkillsCommons will be growing by leaps and bounds over the next few years. As a result, new features are being added that will allow end-users to preview materials as well as support adoption and re-use of the repository learning resources.

WHO WE ARE

SkillsCommons.org is developed by the California State University / MERLOT in cooperation with the Department of Labor. Our dedicated team of librarians, educators, and developers are here to assist you.

CONTRIBUTE & PRESERVE

SkillsCommons provides simple and easy-to-use functionality for TAACCCT Grantees contributing learning resources and curriculum support materials to the repository, including:

- Single submission form
- Batch submission and editing features
- Option to restrict access to sensitive files

EXPLORE & DISCOVER

Whether you want to browse or do a full-text search, SkillsCommons provides robust options for finding relevant learning materials, including being able to limit your results by:

- Industry sector
- Occupation
- Institution
- Material Type
- Credential Type
- Author & Date
