The Risk Management and Loss Prevention Program will be expanded through a redesigned curriculum that integrates technology-enabled courses that support stackable certificates. In addition, basic and core education courses will be enhanced and expanded to support the learning foundation needed for project training programs. This new and improve program is funded by the U.S. Department of Labor through the TRAC-7 grant program.