A Seamless Transition To A 4-Year Degree

Information And Eligibility

Eligible students must have a high school diploma or GED, intend to transition to NAU, and not have attended NAU recently. For specific requirements, visit: ccc2nau.info.

It's our goal to help students feel a connection to both Coconino Community College and Northern Arizona University, as well as facilitate their educational transition. To accomplish this goal, we provide:

- A waived application fee to NAU
- Seamless transfer of credits between the two institutions
- Advising from expert, cross-trained staff
- An NAU ID card and e-mail address
- Free access to NAU athletic events
- The option to purchase access to the NAU Health and Learning Center
- One-on-one guidance in navigating admission requirements
- Info sessions clarifying program benefits
- Scholarships for associate degree graduates with a 3.5 GPA or higher
- The option to live on NAU campus and purchase a meal plan
- Access to NAU student organizations
- Ability to dual enroll at both institutions

“I feel that it's a great program and I have a lot of confidence going into NAU because of the program.”
