

ARE YOU WORK READY?

GET PREPARED FOR MOCK INTERVIEWS!

The Los Angeles Area Chamber of Commerce Healthcare Sector Collaborative invites college students completing the Health Occupation Competencies to participate in mock interviews that will help open doors to employment opportunities in health care.

When you participate in our mock interview sessions, you will:

- Meet with healthcare professionals and employers to polish your resumes and interviewing abilities
- Expand your knowledge of the skills needed to successfully compete for jobs in health care
- Earn an industry recognized Work Readiness Certificate and Digital Badge validating your mastery of critical healthcare competencies

Requirements:

- Must be taking last HOC fundamentals course
- Must pass a math and customer service quiz

Quizzes are available every Thursday in MH-302 from 9-11am and 1-3pm
