

Name: _____

Apostrophe Exercise #4

Correct apostrophe errors in the following sentences by inserting apostrophes where needed, deleting unnecessary apostrophes, or moving apostrophes to another location in the word. Make your corrections clear (that's why the font size is large). If your corrections are not clear, they may be marked incorrect.

1. Good nursing assistants at Brigdon Nursing Home often quit because of managements poor hiring practices.
2. If these prisoners first impression of jail is that of hard work and limited freedoms, they may think twice before returning.
3. Its a public schools primary responsibility to serve its own students needs.
4. Plainclothes and uniformed police knocked on Steiney Richards hotel room. Earlier, the police had obtained a warrant to search the premises as part of a lengthy investigation involving the sale of narcotics out of Richard's and others hotel rooms in the Madison, Wisconsin area.
5. Several high mountains are located within a few hours drive from town.
6. Novice hikers need a good nights rest before attempting to climb some of Colorados high peaks'.
7. Colorado government will use schools CSAP scores to measure performance.
8. Studies have been conducted concerning students responses to questions on standardized tests.
9. Early wildlife management can be traced back to Europe, where gamekeepers kept track of animal species living on the rulers land.
10. The class wrote on their essays after I returned students outlines.