CAREER FAIR OFFERS OPPORTUNITIES FOR STUDENTS AND ALUMNI

COUNCIL BLUFFS, IOWA -

Iowa Western will hold a Spring Career Fair from 2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, March 9 in the Kanesville Arena on the college's Council Bluffs campus. More than 70 employers, organizations and nonprofits will be there to network with Iowa Western students and alumni. Attendees are encouraged to bring multiple copies of their resume to share with company and organization representatives. There will be opportunities in healthcare, information technology, business, education, non-profit, construction, culinary, public service and many more. Positions available from employers include part-time, full-time, internships, and summer jobs.

The Career Fair is organized and sponsored by Iowa Western's Office of Advising, Alumni Foundation, Enhance Iowa, and The Port. Registration is not required for students or alumni to participate. For more information, current students please contact Abigail Berthold, Coordinator of Career Development, at 712.325.3294 or aberthold@iwcc.edu. Alumni please contact alumni@iwcc.edu.
