The CIP code was also evaluated and found that the code 11.1006 Computer Support Specialist. (this covers Computer User Support Specialist and Computer Network Support Specialist) is more appropriate for the program. Updating the changes made to the new Database course CIS-335 that impacts this program. Math requirements were changed to align math classes with the appropriate level for computer support specialists. Courses that were removed from the program (MGT-121, ACC-111/152). In addition, the NET-154 course was deactivated.
