ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND CONDUCT POLICY

The integrity of a class and program rests on the principle that the grades awarded to students must reflect only their own individual efforts and achievement. Students are required to perform the work specified by the instructor and are responsible for the content of work submitted, such as papers, reports, examinations, and other work. Violations of academic integrity include various types of plagiarism and cheating.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to:

- Using exact words from a source without appropriate crediting

- Cutting and pasting electronically from any source without appropriate crediting
- Using wording and/or sentence structure too close to the original in paraphrasing
- Using visual images in whole or in part created by someone else without appropriate crediting
- Buying a paper and presenting any part of it as your own
- Borrowing any part of a paper and presenting it as your own without appropriate crediting
- Falsifying or inventing any information or citation in an academic exercise

Cheating

Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Obtaining or giving assistance in any academic work such as on quizzes, tests, homework, etc., without instructor's consent
- Taking a test or course or turning in work for someone else
- Allowing someone to take a test or course or turn in work in your name
- Using crib notes or electronic devices to get unauthorized assistance on tests or other in-class work
- Using work from another class or previous semester without instructor consent

CLASS CANCELLATION POLICY

Class meetings can occasionally be called off due to bad weather, check the local news and radio for information or call 319-296-4444 for the current status of college closings, class cancellations, delay start, or early dismissal information.
