

YOU DID IT!! YOU ARE A COLLEGE GRADUATE!!

NOW WHAT???

Tips to naviagate the world after college

Now that you have completed your program, there are many things to consider.

Where would you like to work?

Where are the jobs?

Will you need to move? How will you pay off your student loans? How will you adjust to life after school?

Keep reading to find helpful tips!!!

 \bigcirc BSWhen looking for a job consider all of your options. For the healthcare industry, job opportunities exist in, but are not limited to:

DOCTOR'S OFFICES HOSPITALS

SCHOOLS

RETAIL STORES

MILITARY

LABORATORIES

ASSISTED LIVING/NURSING HOMES

Jobs can be available where you live now, but there may be great opportunities in other states & regions of the country.

EDUCATION

In many healthcare jobs, you will need to keep your credentials updated.

Remember vou are always working on your hard & soft skills.

You are there to do a job. Feed back will not always be given to you automatically. Be willing to constantly learn!!

FRIENDSHIPS

You will not always be able to maintain the friendships made in college, but those you want to maintain, work on

You will make new friends throughout your life. Be open.

Be careful to not burn bridges.

Do not underestimate the power of social networking.

Always remember who is most important.

Make time to be with those most precious to you.

Take time to refresh & appreciate the unique person that you are

RELAX LEARN

ENJOY

ENCOURAGE

PLAY

LAUGH

DISCOVER

REST

To read more articles on life after college, click on the links below: Top 10 Tips for Winning at Life After College Graduation

New Graduates