Acknowledgements

The Ohio Department of Higher Education would like to thank the many people who worked to develop the content of the Common Baseline Portfolio Rubric and the training materials. The Common Baseline Portfolio Rubric was developed by a committee facilitated by Jon Tafel and Don Van Meter and representatives from fourteen public colleges and universities. The Common Baseline Portfolio Rubric was distributed for review to the PLA representatives at each institution. Special thanks go to Carrie Delaney, Lorain County Community College; Barbara Henry, Bowling Green State University; Karin Hooks, Lorain County Community College; and Maureen Schomaker, University of Cincinnati for their invaluable assistance in developing the train-the-trainer materials. Additionally, many of Ohio Department of Higher Education staff contributed to these efforts.

The train-the-trainer manual would not have been developed without the support of the OhioTechNet Consortium's Trade Adjustment Assistance Community College Career Training grant from the US Department of Labor. It was a truly collaborative effort with OhioTechNet and the support of Linda Freddrix, Bernie Gosky, and Terri Sandu; their financial and thoughtful support led to the creation of this document. Additionally, great thanks go to Debra Beach, Vizul Multimedia, who pulled all the disparate pieces together into a cogent document that will help faculty better understand how to assess portfolios.

Assessment Guidance for Students and Faculty

The "assessment criteria" in this rubric are designed to evaluate whether a portfolio provides clear evidence that a student who is requesting credit has mastered course learning outcomes and competencies.

NOTE: Before a portfolio can be accepted for assessment, the specific course learning outcomes must be printed on the back of the rubric. Furthermore, it is the responsibility of the faculty assessor to ensure that any student seeking PLA credit is familiar with and understands the course learning outcomes before work on the portfolio begins. The completed rubric must be signed by the faculty assessor.

Each portfolio should be assessed based on six criteria:

1. Sources of Learning
The initial expectation is that a portfolio should portray the experiences that are related to the course learning outcomes, and should illustrate how the prior learning addresses the outcomes expected for the course. A successful candidate must document and describe the learning experiences and how the past education is appropriate for the stated learning outcomes and competencies.
2. Demonstration of Learning
The portfolio should contain appropriate materials and artifacts that support the demonstration of learning outcomes. The artifacts chosen (e.g. certificates of completed training courses, military records, technical and professional materials produced by the student, work projects and programs from performances) should readily support the chosen learning and skills. The artifacts should be dependent upon and appropriate to the field of study.
3. Evidence of Learning
The portfolio should demonstrate that the prior learning experience has resulted in learning tied to sound educational theory (or grounded in appropriate academic frameworks). It should demonstrate the experience has resulted in learned competencies – that learning is aligned with course learning outcomes. (The importance of theoretical and academic frameworks will vary from course to course.)
4. Mastering Knowledge and Skills
The portfolio should demonstrate that the student has mastered the knowledge and skills for the course learning outcomes and can apply them in practice for a sustained period. (NOTE: Concrete experience should be long enough to allow the student to meet expectations (e.g., if a student worked in a position for two weeks, it is doubtful that she/he would have sufficient experience to meet the expectations of the course learning outcomes.) It is not enough for the student to address all of the learning outcomes. It must also be shown that she/he can apply them in practice and to a different learning and problem solution.

5. Reflection on Learning

The portfolio should demonstrate that the student has employed self-evaluation and critical reflection to examine what produced her/his positive personal growth and expertise, and what learning actions were effective. Through the portfolio, the student should show an ability to build upon her/his knowledge and improve her/his performance by implementing strategies and recognizing knowledge gained by her/his concrete experience through reflection – and by applying that learning in her/his concrete experience. (Many adult learners employ self-reflection by completing an annual review when they self-identify their strengths and discuss how they will leverage their strengths to achieve goals for the coming year.)

6. Presentation

The portfolio should include all of the required elements (as defined by each institution), and these elements should be presented in a clear and well-organized manner. In addition, the quality of the written, visual and/or digital presentation should meet postsecondary standards with only minor errors in spelling, grammar and punctuation.

The student should be scored on each of these sets of expectations, based on the following assessment ratings:

- | | |
|------------------------------|----------|
| Does not meet expectations | 0 points |
| Partially meets expectations | 1 point |
| Meets expectations | 2 points |
| Exceeds expectations | 3 points |

Guidance for all of these ratings is provided in the assessment rubric. The recommended cut score for a successful (i.e., passing) portfolio is 12, with a score of at least 1 in each of the six assessment criteria.

Assessment Criteria

PLA Rubric FAQ's

What is the Rubric?

It is a scoring guide that Ohio assessors will use to evaluate portfolio learning assessments. The Rubric divides competencies and objectives into specific aspects. Portfolio components and artifacts will be compared against the rubric to see if they meet criteria.

What are the Rubric's components?

The Rubric is a table with rows and columns.

The first column on the left includes the six Assessment Criteria:

- Sources of Learning
- Demonstration of Learning
- Evidence of Learning
- Mastering Knowledge & Skills
- Reflection on Learning
- Presentation

Assessment Criteria are requirements for documents and artifacts as they apply to the course learning outcomes.

The top row contains the Assessment Ratings. They indicate the levels of alignment to the course learning outcomes. The Ratings are arranged on a scale of values, from lowest (0) to highest (3) levels. These ratings are applied to a portfolio's contents. A portfolio must provide clear evidence that the requesting student has mastered course learning outcomes and competencies.

Why should we use the Rubric?

The new Ohio Portfolio Rubric plays an important role in preserving high standards and maintaining consistency. It is crafted to help ensure:

- Student-centered, faculty-driven practices
- Consistency in assessment of portfolios
- Maintenance of academic integrity within, across, and among institutions
- Improved portability of credit earned by students

Using the rubric will assist assessors in their job of reviewing and rating portfolios. It is, in essence, a template on which expectations for a passing portfolio are placed. It will make your job as assessor easier by providing a consistent and concrete framework from which to work. The Portfolio Learning Assessment (PLA) Rubric will also provide clarity for assessors and the students who apply for course credit.

Portfolios

What should be in a portfolio?

Each portfolio will be unique and should align with the specific course learning outcomes for which credit is being sought. It should contain a student's best evidence of mastery of course learning outcomes and competencies. Multiple types of documents can act as evidence. Examples include:

- Autobiographies
- Business plans
- Job performance reports
- Multimedia (e.g., photos, videos, PowerPoint presentations, etc., as appropriate)
- News articles
- Official documents of learning experiences
- Official signed awards/award nomination forms and letters
- Prior learning narrative/reflection
- Publications
- Resumes
- Signed reference letters and work experience statements
- Training certificates/records on official company/institution letterhead signed by appropriate HR/Training personnel
- Transcripts
- Training dates & completion records
- Work samples

Each of these documents or artifacts should be complete, well written, and free of spelling and grammatical errors.

In sum, each portfolio artifact must be of quality and reflect the stated course learning outcomes (printed on the back of the rubric) for which a student is applying.

The Workshop

Why do we need the workshop?

The overall goal of the pre-training and workshop is to prepare participants to:

1. Effectively evaluate portfolios by implementing the rubric
2. Be able to train/educate other potential portfolio evaluators.

Do I need to do anything before the workshop?

You will need to complete the Online Module located on the LMS.

Where is the workshop and where should I park?

You should receive instructions as to the location and parking from the hosting institution/facilitator.

What should I bring?

It is suggested that you bring a pen/pencil. The Participant's Manual has a notes area, but you may want to bring a notepad. Availability of beverages, snacks, and a catered lunch will vary. Please check with your workshop's facilitator before arriving.

What tools will be used?

The facilitator will present information using a PowerPoint. Manuals will be passed out and computers will be used for the pre and post-test segments.

How long will it take?

The workshop will take approximately four (4) hours including breaks

What is covered?

We will cover:

- The Rubric: Gain knowledge and understanding of the rubric and its application in assessing portfolios.
 - Structure and components of the rubric
 - How it is used theoretically and in practice
 - What components a complete portfolio should have
 - How to assess and score a portfolio
 - How to provide rationales for your scoring
- How to lead workshops at your institution
