

What is an Apprenticeship program?

An apprentice is a company employee that is provided a structured training program that is a combination of classroom instruction and on the job training. An apprenticeship is many times created when an employer is unable to hire individuals with specific skills. This is a “grow your own” program that can provide a solution to the retirement of highly skilled employees.

Rhodes State College is experienced in helping companies start apprenticeships

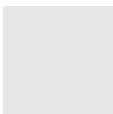

We will help your companies choose the classroom instruction and assist you in the creation of a work schedule. Rhodes State has assisted 12 companies in the creation of Apprenticeship programs.

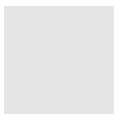

Rhodes can assist with your administrative tasks – sponsorship model. We can further assist the creation of your apprenticeship program by becoming your Apprentice’s Sponsor. This alleviates much of the administrative burden.

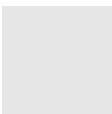

Tuition dollars available from DOL. If you are ready to start, Rhodes State can help you utilize grant funding from the Department of Labor to offset
