

Manufacturing Day 2016

Save the Date

Who: Students, Parents, Community Members

When: Friday, October 7, 2016—begins at 8 am

Where: Intech Center, 9400 Cherry Avenue, Fontana, CA 92335

What: Manufacturing Day is celebrated nationally to expand knowledge about and improve general public perception of manufacturing careers and manufacturing's value to our economy (www.mfgday.com). |Students and the Community will meet with local manufacturers while engaging in interesting, hands-on activities to see real-world application of various career paths. This event is free of charge to participants and is sponsored by the InTech Center and the California Community College's Chancellor's Office Doing What Matters For Jobs and the Economy initiative.

Key Benefits for Students & the Community

Students will interact with local businesses and Chaffey College faculty who can share the different careers available and the education or training needed to succeed in manufacturing fields. Plus, they will engage in hands-on career exploration experiences which will highlight career paths related to their interests. Career exploration exhibits are facilitated by college students who are majoring in similar subjects to better connect students to college and career.
