

Minnesota State

Community and Technical College
Custom Training Services

COURSE OUTLINE

Title: Lock Out/Tag Out

Project/Course Number: IND705

Contact Hours: 1 hour

Category:

Sub-Category:

Project/Course Description:

This training is to ensure that all workers are familiar with the requirements and procedures for locking out and tagging equipment when performing maintenance and cleaning. This course meets components of OSHA 1910.147 Standard.

Project/Course Goals:

Upon completion of this course, employees of the workplace will:

- Understand and Discuss the Control of Hazardous Energy Standard (Lockout/Tagout)
- Understand the definition of hazardous energy
- Identify examples of hazardous energy located at the facility
- Explain how the standard applies to servicing and maintenance
- Describe types and magnitude of the energy, hazards to be controlled, methods or means of control
- Describe shutdown procedures and start up procedures
- Explain employers lockout/tagout procedures

Resources: Qualified Instructor & Handouts

Physical Set-Up: Classroom

Program Manager: Mary Drewes

Date: 12-11-13