

Liberal Arts: Community Health Certificate

 MassBay courses are offered days, evenings, weekends, and online. View the complete list of online courses at www.massbay.edu/uploadedFiles/online.pdf. Check current course availability at www.massbay.edu/courses

DIVISION OF SOCIAL SCIENCES & PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

This certificate program meets the needs of those who are looking to enter the community health field, upgrade skills in a current community health position, and/or are interested in pursuing further studies in community health. Upon completion, students are prepared for entry-level positions in community health centers hospitals, and social agencies dealing with public and community health issues.

This program combines coursework in the social sciences with community health courses. Students gain knowledge of the field and develop professional skills such as communication, report writing, behavior modification, and human relations. The 150-hour field experience and weekly seminar will complement the coursework.

Upon successful completion, the Certificate in Liberal Arts with a concentration in Community Health is awarded.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

CORI (Criminal Offender Record Information) and SORI (Sexual Offender Registry Information) background checks are required prior to practicum placement and will be conducted in accordance with state regulations. CORI and SORI results are confidential.
