	Yes/No/DNA	Comments
Course Number	Yes
Course Title	Yes
Course Description	Yes	This is poorly written. This is not a complete sentence. This can be greatly improved to tell a story of what will be taught in the course
Pre-requisites	Yes	PPT202 and PPT203
Co-requisites	No	None listed
Student learning outcomes and competencies are clearly identified	Yes	The first competency does not need to include "prerequisite". To just say knowledge required is adequate. Further it seems there should be more competencies related to service procedures of the mechanical components.
Required and recommended texts and other materials are clearly identified	No	Nothing is provided in this document

Description of strategies for student success or available assistance	No	Nothing is provided in this document
Description of how course prepares student for a certificate or degree	No	Nothing is provided in this document
Description of how course/item is relevant or applicable to occupation or industry	No	This reviewer can make some assumptions based on personal knowledge, but the document provided does not provide any statements of why this information is important or where it fits in understanding the industry.
Description of assessments, evaluation, exams and grading process	No	Nothing is provided in this document
Evidence of industry input, review and approval process	No	This document appears to be nothing more than a list of units from a textbook. There is no evidence provided of any input from industry.
Evidence of college review and approval process	Yes	Approved March 26, 2013
For items not directly related to a course, any evidence of quality control process	NA

The overall quality is a sufficient representation of college and industry standards

No

This document appears to be a compliance piece for academic approval. It does little to convey a message to a student of expectations or how they will be successful in this course.

Other notes

This material as presented is not adequate to meet the expectations for a grant project of this nature. This does not provide information as should be provided to satisfy the objectives of curriculum development under the grant guidelines.
