What is a

Prior Learning Assessment?

Prior Learning Assessment (PLA) is a way to “earn” potential credit for previous learning that matches a particular course in your program of study at MCCC.

What kind of learning experiences may apply?

You may have acquired lifelong learning through your job, employer training courses, military service, or independent study. This learning can through an evaluation of course material per college polic

What are the benefits of taking a PLA?

The benefits of a PLA are exceptional. Students who acquire credit

- save time by avoiding unnecessary repetition of material already mastered
- save money due to the lesser number of required courses to finish a program
- have higher rates of accomplishing their desired educational goals
