

If you would like to learn more about the MOHealthWINS or the MOManufacturingWINS program at East Central College attend an information session. Admissions, health career options, manufacturing career options and program details will be discussed. Please call 636-584-6743 or 636-584-6595 to register for an information session at ECC in Union.

The Transitions course is a conduit for students wanting to gain credentials or degrees in health related or manufacturing programs. It will help prepare students for success by developing math, reading, writing and career preparation skills needed in the health care or manufacturing industry. The program will explore the health career programs or manufacturing programs offered at ECC and will also provide students with a support system to assist them throughout their time at East Central College.
