The Clovis Community College Foundation

The Clovis Community College Foundation is a charitable organization created in 1997 to promote private support for the college. The Foundation is committed to increasing the number and diversity of scholarships, providing support for faculty development, creating an endowment base to ensure continued financial assistance to students, and securing additional equipment and materials for the college.

A volunteer board of highly committed business and community leaders lends their time and talents to govern the Foundation and provide leadership for Foundation initiatives.
