

SDV 298 PLACE –Narrative of Competencies Resources

College-Level Learning Guidelines

- The learning is describable.
- The learning is reasonably current.
- The learning has general applicability.
- The learning fits into academic disciplines.
- The learning includes both theories and applications.
- The learning is verifiable.
- The learning cannot have already been awarded credit.

-Vermont State Colleges

Learning Questions

- What did I learn that I didn't know before?
- What can I do now that I could not before?
- How have my beliefs or feelings changed because of this experience?
- If I had to train someone in this area, what skills, knowledge, attitudes, or qualities would they need to develop?
- Did I attend training sessions or read books, training manuals, or research studies related to this area?
- What decisions did I have to make or difficult problems did I solve? How did I do this?