Careers in Manufacturing Course

If you're looking to explore the potential that a career in manufacturing has to offer, but need a better understanding of this expanding industry, Careers in Manufacturing is for you! This course introduces students to all that a manufacturing career has to offer! You'll learn about the skills, technology, work environment, and potential salary in fields such as:

- Machine Tool Technology
- Mechatronics (Automation/Robotics, Electronics, Fluid Power)
- Welding and Metal Fabrication
- Plastics Engineering Technology
- Engineering CAD (Computer-Aided Design) Technology

Unlike any other course, you'll gain hands-on experience in each sector of HTC's Manufacturing Programs. A tour of a local, cutting-edge manufacturer and the hands-on projects will help shape your view of the true manufacturing career.
